WEEK IN REVIEW 01/15/2018

The weekly meeting of the Rotary Club of Pensacola was held at New World Landing on a cold Tuesday January 15, 2019. Members and guests received a warm welcome at the door from new member Sorna Khakzad and longtime member Jimmy Jones. Dale Jordan and Charles Kahn teamed up and did a great job on the raffle. President Betty Roberts called the meeting to order and led us in the Four Way Test. Ted Brown led us in an inspiring prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. The moment in History for this week was presented by the Rotary Rooters and gave us a lesson on the origins and ups and downs of Mardi Gras celebrations in Pensacola today. Beginning in France, moving to the new world in New Orleans, Mobile and in 1900 to Pensacola and with a few ups and downs ending with the Mardi Gras celebrations we know today. Ed Wonders announced that the applications for this year's RYLA are available on line. Alan Bookman provided sunshine and greeted guests of Rotarians, visiting Rotarians. We were honored with two military guests on this day. The $51 jackpot winner was Dale Jordan. Mark Harden introduced Sheriff David Morgan, the Speaker for the meeting. Sheriff Morgan took the opportunity to speak to the club on the topic of Community Leadership and the importance of a community having strong moral and ethical standards and role models. He related a personal story of his youth in which he was with the 'wrong' crowd and heading down a path to actions that even at the age of 15, he knew were not in line with the expectations of his family. He opted out and the rest of the group encountered a tragic situation. Why he made the choice, as a teen who longed for peer acceptance and others often do not is the question and many of us may have had a similar experience. His answer is not fear of law enforcement or personal strength of character or education, the answer is the understanding of and the pressure to live by a set of common values held by the family, church and community and the fear of disappointing those respected role models. His plea is that we all consider what we can do to build back and strengthen the core values or "common values" within our community. After Sheriff Morgan responded to several questions, President Betty thanked all who served and the meeting was adjourned.
