WEEK IN REVIEW 07/24/2018

The regular meeting of the Downtown Rotary was held at New World Landing. Members and guests were warmly welcomed by Julie Tippins Parker. Raffle tickets were sold by Scott Sallis. They did a great job with the raffle being $61.00. The winning ticket was held by Scott Ford, a visitor.

The meeting was called to order by President Betty. She reminded everyone that the membership drive is going on and encouraged everyone to invite a guest. The "Cram the Van" drive is going on Thursday, July 26th at the Walmart on Hwy 29 and at the Hall Center on Fairfield. She encouraged members to volunteer. She is also encouraging everyone to join a committee. There are plenty of open spaces on various committees. Sally Fox led us in prayer and pledge. Scott Grissett provided sunshine. He introduced our visitors, including a detective from the Pensacola Police Department. We had one birthday, who was not present. Next was Mark Harden to introduce our guest speaker. Guest speaker today was our very own Tammy

Hardy Fauber. Tammy is the executive director of Azalea Trace, a retirement community offering various levels of retirement living. Tammy received her degree in business administration at Strayer University. She also attended Eastern University and Mountain State University. She has many years of experience in her providing quality care for the elderly. Azalea Trace is in the process of building cottages, which will be for people who do not need daily assistance. Azalea Trace provides several options for people over the age of 62. They offer assisted living care, and more full service care. The White Sands duplexes range in size from 1200 to 1300 square feet. The cottages offer two bedroom, two bath with a master bedroom with spacious walk in closet. Nine foot ceilings with an open floor plan. They feature a large front porch entry and have covered patios. They also feature a large breakfast counter.

President Betty thanked the volunteers who assisted with today's meeting and adjourned.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN ROTARY

Thank you to Rotarians who participation in Cram the Van. Rotarians Kim Ray, Lynne Tobin, Dale Jordan and administrative officer Chris Bridwell helped collect supplies and donation for local schools.

New member drive continues. Bring a potential new member to the meeting, and there will be no charge for their lunch.

ROTARY WHEELS

- ❖ When we scan the calendar and note 'seasons' there are some that relate to happenings rather than weather. For example, now's the time when folks are getting ready to plan seasonal United Way doings ... and for Frances Cutshaw's United Ministries, too.
- ❖ Jon Griffith's got his WAHOOS playing great ball! They're leading the league, with a good chance to make the playoffs – again.
- ❖ Grover Robinson's a busy guy, and rightly so. He's drawn a heap of opposition in the race for mayor. If he doesn't get 50%-plus in primary one he'll face a second race.
- ❖ When Tammy Hardy-Tauber presented the Azalea Trace Story it brought back memories to when former Rotary president Pat Groner was putting down the foundation for that fine organization. Other Rotarians Dixie Beggs and Earl Gaston were much involved, too, as were Ken Wolfe and John Appleyard.
- ❖ As the Rooters practice they have a unique makeup. There are TWO former admirals and TWO former federal judges in the warbling.
