The Rotary Club of Pensacola District 6940 Club 4248

WEEK IN REVIEW

An early summer hit downtown Rotarians on their way to the door to be greeted by Jerry Kindle and then for a raffle ticket from Morris Eddy.

President Alan kicked off the meeting with punctual perfection delivering the Four Way Test, a few comments, and then recognized John Tice for his Paul Harris plus SIX – that's right six. Congratulations John.

President Alan asked Roger Vinson to lead all in the prayer, and then the pledge, to our Republic.

In keeping with the profession theme of the day, Barrister (and Helicopter Editor) Jeff Lewis won the raffle with a cheer and a smile.

Dr. Jimmy Jones (might have thought about being an attorney – if only briefly) introduced our program – the Pensacola Navy League's – Buck Mitchell. Mr. Mitchell is President of the NW Florida Navy League and provided an overview of the organization. The Navy League's primary mission is to foster and support the protection of those assets (the US Navy, Coast Guard, and Merchant Marines) as it pertains to the overall defense of the United States. Nationwide, the league lobbies federal, state, and local governments to ensure that our maritime forces are always considered first in order to keep the sea lanes of communication open as to not interrupt the flow of iPhones from China. Additionally, the Sea Cadets, a program for youth to learn about the significance of the navy and defense of our country, is a Navy League cornerstone program. Buck did make a plea to the membership for more members. The local league has seen its membership fall from over 400 pre hurricane Ivan to around 250 currently. Membership brings benefits such as golf and marina privileges at NAS Pensacola, receipt of the magazine Sea Power, and a host of other benefits. After a few questions the meeting concluded.

Respectfully submitted,
Clark Merritt
