WEEK IN REVIEW 08/27/2019

President John Trawick called the meeting to order. As part of his introductory remarks, he stated that the Board recently met and were surprised to learn that only 30% of members currently meet the club's established financial support goals. He reminded the club of our motto "Service above Self" and stated that we provide service through giving or doing. He asked that each of us review our status and renew our commitment. . Additionally, he asked that we continue our efforts to recruit new members, restating the club's goal to achieve at least 200 members, by the time he turns the helm over to President-elect Sally Fox.

Sunshine was delivered by Pueschel Schneier following prayer and pledge led by Charles Stewart. Charles recognized our five guests, one visiting Rotarian and our "birthday members" present who enjoyed another excellent rendition of the Club's happy birthday song led by our very own maestro: John Appleyard.

Mark Harden then introduced our guest speaker, Eileen Perrigo the President of The Great Gulfcoast Arts Festival.

Eileen gave a well-received presentation concerning the Great Gulfcoast Arts Festival. The festival is one of the premier festivals in the United States. It blends the works of some of the nation's top artists, scenic views, live music, an annual crowd that exceeds 150,000. This year's festival will be held November 1 – 3, 2019. It's the perfect time and place to begin holiday shopping or to treat yourself to a handmade treasure.

The three-day, art show draws more than 200 of the country's best painters, potters, sculptors, jewelers, graphic artists, craftsmen and other artists. The festival also includes a Children's Art Festival.

John concluded the meeting by thanking our speaker along with greeters Ron Jackson and Ray Jones, and ticket sellers Jimmy Jones and Allison Hill for their help in serving you to deliver another great meeting.

Yours in Rotary Service, Jack Brown
