The Rotary Club of Pensacola District 6940 Club 4248

WEEK IN REVIEW

Warm greetings for everyone today came from Vince Currie and Madison Currin.

President Alan called the meeting to order and prayer and pledge was led by Randy Jackson.

President Alan began announcements by thanking club members who volunteered at the Manna event last Saturday. More than 400 volunteers helped put food packets together to create more than 90,000 meals. Volunteers also planted plants, broke down bags of beans and painted portions of the building.

Julie Tippins Parker brought back a Rotary banner from Delhi and presented it to the club. Visit Pensacola's Lori Coppels shared information about Tourism Cares, a volunteer effort taking place March 29 & 30 to make a difference at the Pensacola Lighthouse and along the shoreline of Bayou Texar in Bayview Park. The registration fee to volunteer is $99. For more information, go to www.TourismCares.org/ volunteer.

President Alan encouraged everyone to send in nominations for the Combined Rotary of Pensacola Ethics in Business Award. Nominations are due April 2. Nomination forms can be downloaded at www.uwf.edu/cob/ethics.cfm.

Mr. Sunshine, Al Stubblefield, introduced military guests, guests and visiting Rotarians. Birthday wishes were sung to all accompanied by John Appleyard on harmonica. William Davis and David DelGallo handled ticket sales today and John Tice was the lucky winner of the $69 raffle.

Jerry Maygarden introduced our speaker, Dr. Sandra Lockney Davis. Dr. Davis wrote a book as a memoir of her adventures in Korea and Vietnam entitled "So, What's a Nice Girl Like You Doing in a Place Like This?" She described her experiences working for U.S.

Army Special Services in Korea and Vietnam. She said she witnessed the best and worst of human nature. Her job was to keep the service club supplied and operating. Dr. Davis shared some of the stories she wrote about in her book. She also showed pictures from her time there and a few cartoons.

President Alan then asked everyone that had served in Korea and Vietnam to stand and be recognized. There are quite a few of our club members who served during that time and the club thanked them for their service.

President Alan led the club in the 4-Way test, thanked all those that helped at the meeting, and the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Sherry Hartnett

ROTARY WHEELS

- ❖ Tommy Tait is currently serving as president of the Florida Bankers Association.
- ❖ Note that Terry Scruggs, in his interim role as Chamber marketing director, has opened the door to changes in professional marketing. Since the city opened a similar door, we're likely to have an avenue for new club programs.

- ❖ Noting program possibilities, hope that Henry Roberts may guide Sacred Heart's new CEO to our podium. AND – with all the changes taking place in military size and potentials perhaps Gerry Hoewing might arrange a session to help club members understand all of that.
