WEEK IN REVIEW

Brett Barrow greeted participants and Tony Basel hawked raffle tickets to those attending today's meeting. John Monroe assisted with Earl Hutto's efforts to recruit members as bell ringers for the Salvation Army.

President Innes opened the meeting with a short prayer for Alabama vs. Notre Dame football and then introducing Randy Jackson for the prayer and pledge. She also announced that the District Foundation gala will be held February 1st in Tallahassee with additional information to follow and that the club is operating in the WWW space with our own Facebook page and website where information is posted. Tuesday December 15th will be the Christmas meeting. Susan O'Conner ask that participants that wish to attend sign the forms on the table and also note any guest that will attend. There is a $15 guest charge for this event. Who else but perpetual winner Ted Brown won the $60 pot. Frank Beall gave us plenty of sunshine with his excellent humor. He introduced our military guest representing the United State Marine Corp, visitors and visiting Rotarians. Our birthday celebrants were MIA.

Susan O'Conner, trustee for the University of West Florida, led the club in a "Go Argo's" cheer to introduce the new NCAA women's soccer national champion coach, Joe Bartlinski. With a 24-1-0 season and winning their last 13 games, Joe thanked Dr. Judy Bense for all of her support at the games and at the University. Four seniors from the team spoke to the club.

Jessica Eubanks came to UWF from the Cayman Islands as a major in finance. She recounted the long journey this year maintaining their winning season and attributed their success to the support of all of the students, fans and families. Rachel Cutts is from Pace FL majoring in exercise management and also thanked the fans and families for all of the support. Monica Malavassi is from Costa Rica and majoring in sports management. As team captain she said hard work and focus were instrumental in the team's success, especially in the semi-final match with defending champions, Santa Rose whom they beat in overtime and carried them to the finals with UC San Diego. Tori Fish is from Bellaire, TX and is broadcasting major. She saw the defeats with past teams and sadness with the seniors on the teams. An injury caused her to be red shirted in 2009. She thanked Coach Bartlinski for all the support on and off the field.

ROTARY WHEELS

- ❖ It was 45 years ago that Rodger Doyle made the first-ever bank loan to what became Seville Quarter, and Jack Williams adds that one of the first buildings in the entertainment complex had been a print shop for many years. They had to remove inches of printer's ink from the floor before they put down the peanut shells.
- ❖ Mike Ferguson, whose army involvement grows ever larger, says that one great problem these days with our all-volunteer military is that only about twenty-two percent of high school graduates can qualify. Problems with academics, physical health or some law violations rule out so many.
- ❖ David Bear has this neat story: When the Anheuser and Busch families were united in marriage they started a brewery, naming their beer from a source in Germany. Monks in the Bohemian village of Budweis were originators of their recipe. And so came Budweiser!
- ❖ Didjknow that Bromley Dyson, whose hand has touched many a general contracting project nearby, also began his career with formal training as a brick mason?
