WEEK IN REVIEW

Members and guest arrived on this misty autumn day to be greeted by Mike Layton and Jeff Lewis.

Brian Masterson and Bryan McCall sold raffle tickets earning $41 to the lucky ticket holder. At the appropriate time our meeting was rung to order by President Andrea who called upon John Trawick for our prayer and pledge, followed by Henry Roberts with sunshine. Henry mentioned the recent visit by Pope Francis and hoped we all took his message of friendship to heart. He also announced member Randy Jackson will be leaving us to move to Atlanta. With some clergy jest directed at Frank Beall and himself, Henry introduced our visitor and birthday celebrants.

President Andrea stated that District Governor Leon had announced that Nigeria was deemed to be polio free. They are still suffering from war with terrorist and need our continued support.

Our newest Paul Harris Fellows were announced; Shawn Brantley and Art Hufford, and PH plus members Charles Kahn +1 and Roger Enzor +3. Congratulations to each of you and thank you for your contribution to and continued support of Rotary. We all need to do our part.

President Andrea mentioned that the Club had discussed different topics for meeting and today's subject was brought up. With the title of "5th Tuesday Topics", the members were ask to discuss among their table 5 topics and respond to the overall group. They were:

*With so much negativity shared through local media, what positive topic about our community is being overlooked.

*Is the volatility of the stock market going to affect local business? How are you seeing it play out locally?

*How is downtown development impacting your profession?

*Is China's volatile business climate affecting your profession and if so, why?

*What is happening in your profession (in Pensacola) that you wish others outside our community know?

There was very much discussion at each table. Unfortunately, due to the extent of the topics proposed and time constraints, the sharing among the group was very limited.

So as an experiment in program topics, this was a good way to share and build better communications. It needs some tweaking but a nice start. (Editorial opinion).

Meeting adjourned.

ROTARY WHEELS

- ❖ Did ya know that both Eric Nicklsen and Collier Merrill are trustees of Sacred Heart Health System?
- ❖ As baseball enters its climax, Hill Turner's on the edge of his chair; his Cards are in the play. Incidentally, Hill's ancestor Richard was one of the city's first successful contractors. He was building houses here back in 1857.
- ❖ Now that Bobby Switzer and Company own the Brent Block they'll be remembering a key event there: in 1905 fire leveled almost that whole block.
- ❖ See where plans are afoot to name the ball park for our former member Jack Fetterman. Jack was a true sportsman!
- ❖ Good member Terry Terrell says he's stepping down from the circuit court shortly. He's been on that bench for 23 years.
- ❖ Next July perhaps the whole club might help Maria Goldberg and the restaurant she guides celebrate the annual Jackson Day!
- ❖ In our club's founding year of 1915 the city of Pensacola bought its first engine driven fire engine.
