ROTARY WHEELS

- ❖ John Shaffer has been chosen by State Farm to be the first agent in Pensacola to open a second agency. Opening July 2 in the Pine Forest area.
- ❖ See where Judge Ed Nickinson is still strummin' & Hummin' with the Reunion Band, with a number of fashionable gigs.
- ❖ Terry Terrell was the introducer when the Escambia-Santa Rose Bar Association presented the Liberty Bell awards last week.
- ❖ Bob Hart's staff made front page recently as the members assisted Quint Studer's signing of the papers in the BIG downtown apartment plan.
- ❖ Auby Smith's wife, Pam, who also is in real estate, has a neat twist to her communications. When she sends a message it's usually tied to a great Southern recipe. She must be a great cook!
- ❖ Jon Griffith says that a number of this year's Wahoos team are Latin Americans, thus he's having to become even more fluent in Spanish. (They're fine ball players, too.)
- ❖ Report is that the practice field for the UWF football team is beautiful...and the intersquad game recently drew strong applause.
- ❖ It's sad to see GOING OUT OF BUSINESS signs on the windows of Bill Dollarhide's emporium. That store developed quite a musical history.
- ❖ Note again the success of UWF baseball and golf teams. AND...congrats to Judy Bense upon her receipt of the of the Rotary Ethics award. Ed Ranelli's committee produced an excellent meeting.
- ❖ Brett Barrow's symphony continues to gain great audience support. The recent concert got all kinds of praise.
- ❖ Bet you didn't know that Jerry Maygarden's ancestors hailed from SPAIN...well over 200 years ago.

WHEELCHAIR PROJECT

Clif Payne reports that on April 22nd the wheelchairs for the Club's global Grant in Costa Rica were shipped and will arrive in time for the first work week, which is scheduled for June 12-19. Just as in the past, he is seeking volunteers to fly into San Jose Costa Rica and work in the San Jose metro area to implement the project. Stay tuned for the dates for future trips, which will occur through November 2016 and will be scheduled every 6-8 weeks. What a great opportunity to travel abroad and support an exceptionally worthy Rotary project. For more information please call Clif at 433-8732.
