WEEK IN REVIEW 06/28/2016

The weekly meeting of the Rotary Club of Pensacola and the last meeting of the Presidency of Andrea Krieger was held on a sunny Tuesday, June 28, 2016. President Andrea led us in the four way test. Sally Fox introduced the newest member, Vicki Campbell, Title Service Manager and ECUA Board member to the Club. Al Coby led us in prayer and pledge. Alan Bookman added on the Sunshine and welcomed visiting Rotarians and Guests of Rotarians., including political candidates Greg Evers and Steven Sprecht. Two military guests were recognized. Bob Fargo did an outstanding job of ticket sales. Happy Birthday went out Carl Mertins, Jr. Club Historian John Appleyard presented a resolution in recognition of the life and service of Rotarian Frances Yeo. In fulfilling her final duty as President, President Andrea provided an astonishing summary of achievements from the 2015-2016 year and acknowledged the great work of many Committees that included outstanding results for literacy in Escambia County, wheelchair deployments in Central America, fund raising for Polio Plus, Community Grant distributions of $11,000, over 50% of membership as Paul Harris fellows, a total of $125K in fund raising for the Centennial Park and its completion, and the addition of 14 new members who now have mentors and an orientation program to follow thanks to the contributions of Courtney Dell, membership chair, John Tice, Orientation Chair and Julie Tippins Parker, Mentoring Chair. President Andrea and her Board were recognized by the group for the job well done. President Elect Brain Baumgardner provided an introduction and preview of things to come under his leadership for 2016-2017. President Brian has set his sights on growing the membership to maintain the position of the largest club in the District, increasing Foundation giving and a continuation of support for the almost completed project of polio eradication. President Brian thanked all who served and the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,
Claudia Simmons

ROTARY WHEELS

- ❖ Hats off to new president Brian for the straight forward beginning to his year on June 28th...and his citing of Rotary's historic objectives.
- ❖ Jerry Maygarden is back on the UWF campus...taking full courses. (But he declares he's NOT aiming to be a professor.)
- ❖ When Alan Bookman held forth with SUNSHINE last week he disclosed a new side to his character. He DOES have a sense of humor:
- ❖ Checking the club roster it's interesting to see how many members are – or were- leaders in local agencies of compassion. Credit goes to Bill Phillips, Jean Norman, De De Flounlacker, Andrea Krieger, Jerry Kindall, Bob Cornett, Bob Rogers and Leanne Todd.
- ❖ Betty Roberts says she's working overtime to assure a strong roster of programs.
